

The Micklethwaites of South West Yorkshire and beyond!

This study started looking into the Micklethwaite strongholds of Mirfield, Kirkburton and Kirkheaton, in an attempt to find out about my 3x great grandfather John (a1 p2.2). This is still "work in progress", especially regarding the Penistone area where there are too many Johns and Jonathans!

Obviously the study now extends beyond those areas, but other sites should be visited for the other areas, namely:

www.micklethwait.org - Ingbirchworth, Barnsley and points South and East

Whilst all of the data behind these trees is good, much of the linking is based on conjecture. I'm also rather prone to making transcription mistakes - if you think I am wrong, please do tell me! If you think I'm right, please tell me too - I'd love to hear from you if you're researching these folks! I have largely avoided putting data on after 1901, but if you would like me to include yours, do let me know. I have also started a DNA study and would like to hear from living male Micklethwait(e) descendants who are happy to have a DNA test - see: <http://www.ancestryhost.org/andymick/dna.htm>

I have created a page to honour WW1 Micklethwaite deaths at <http://www.ancestryhost.org/andymick/rollofhonour.htm> they are marked WW1

John d 1785 prob. m 1779 M/f of Liley

Sarah CROSLAND m2. 1789

John COPLEY Linked to MS
It is also possible John Copley married Sarah nee Oldroyd widow of Daniel p2.2

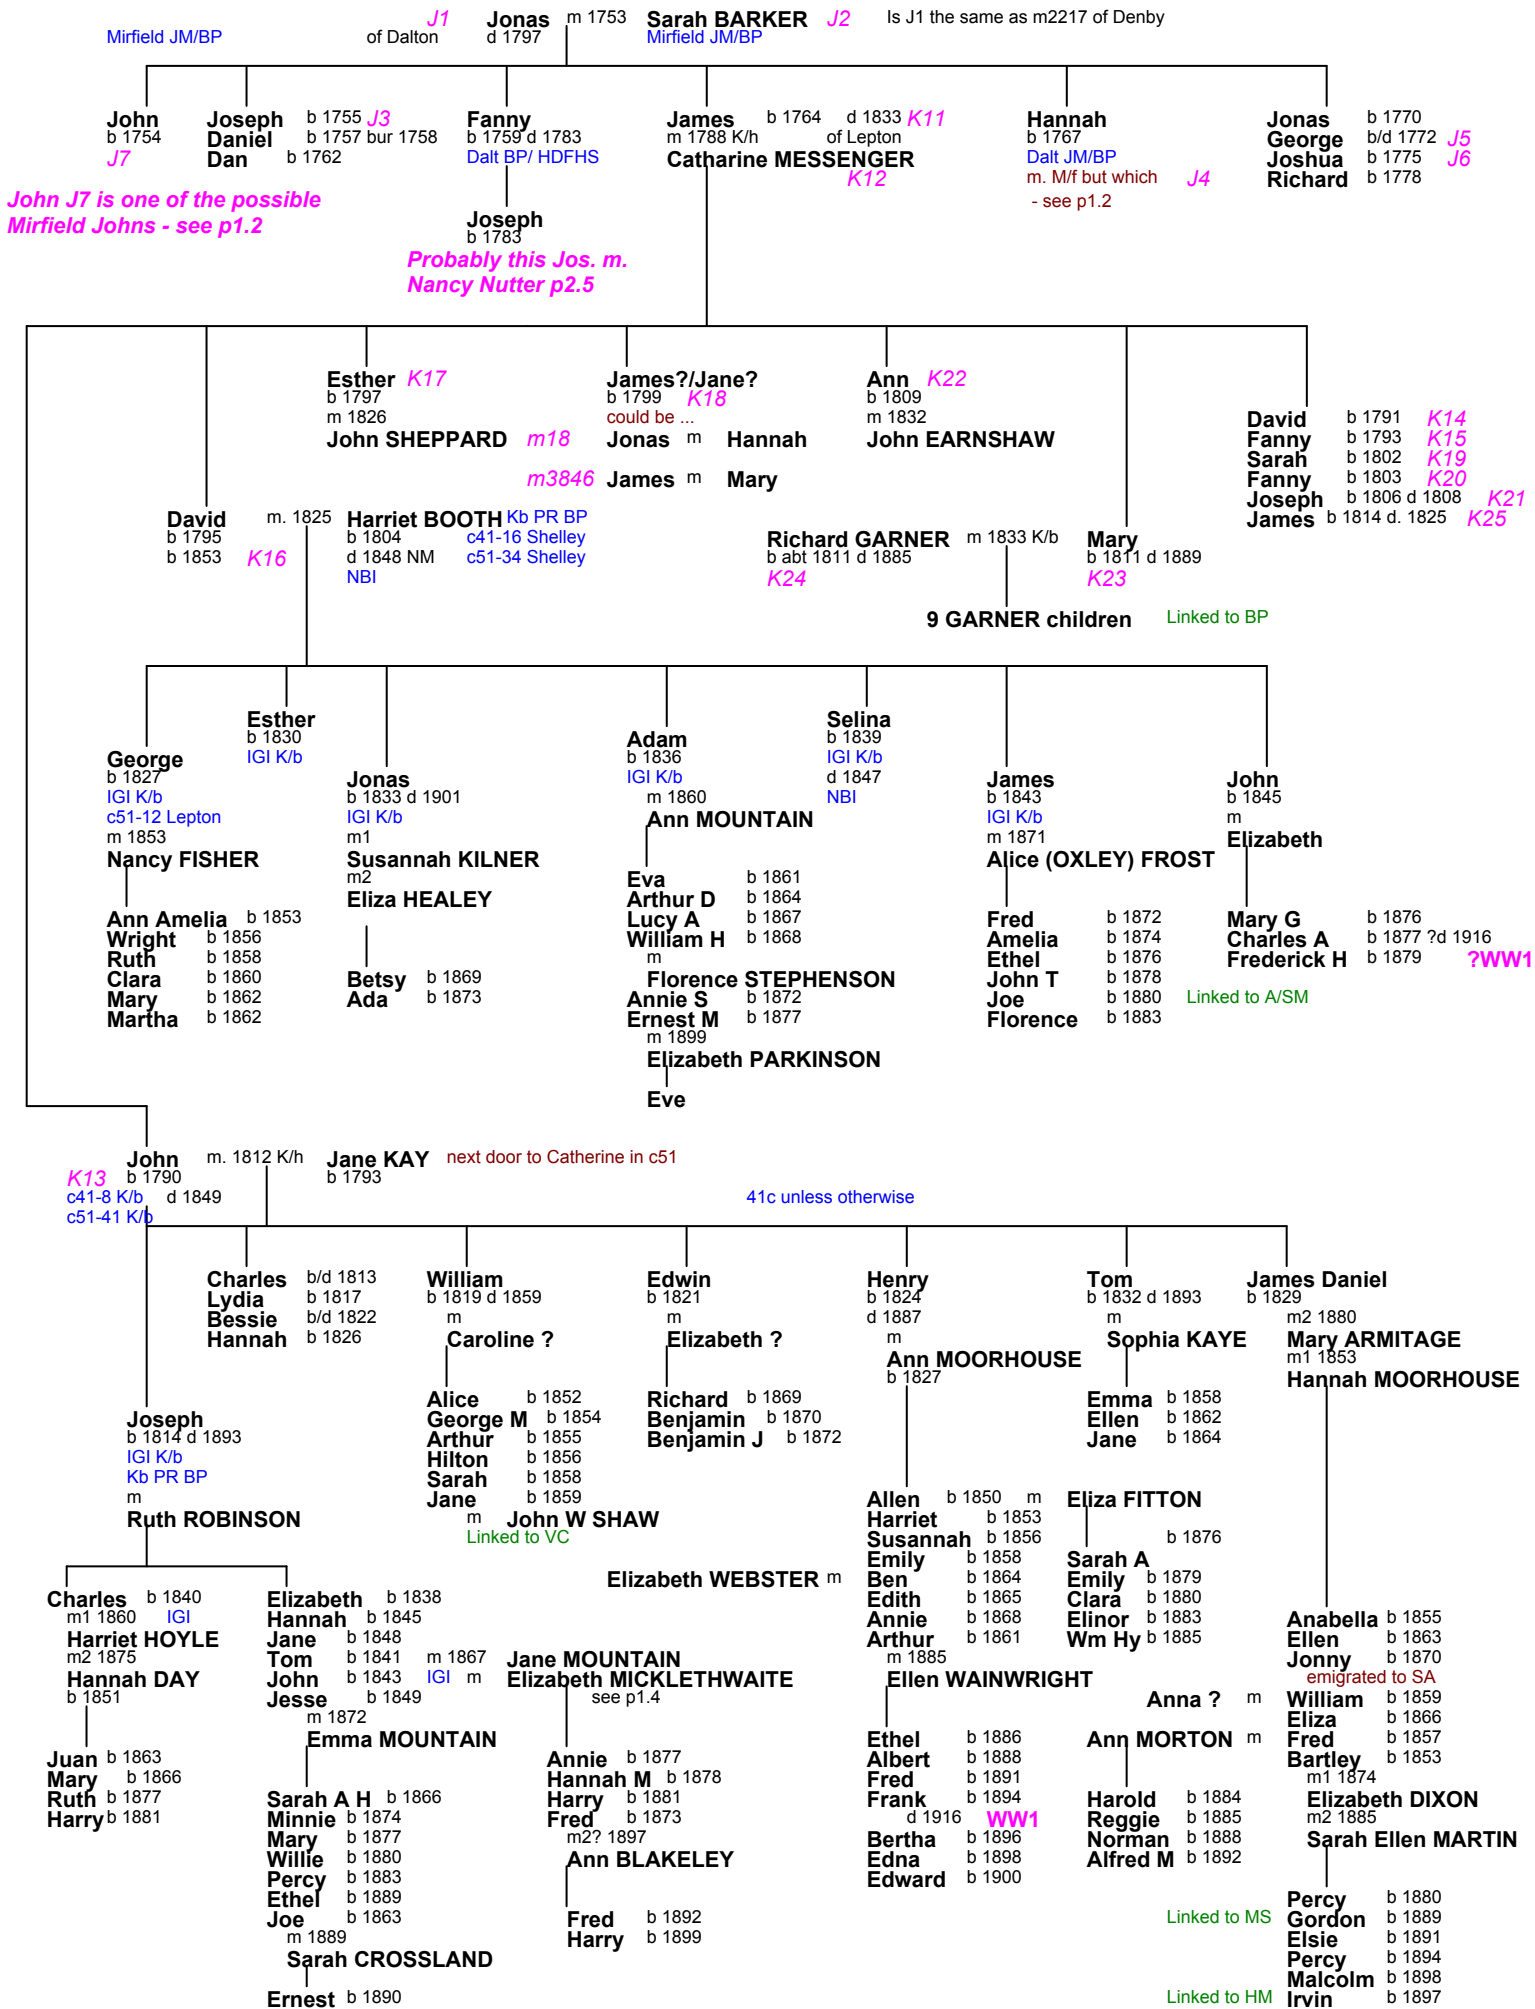

There are 2 sets of children born to Johns:
imm. above with Sarah Crosland in Mirfield;
John D21 (m. Mary Cliffe p1.4) in K/h.
There are now 2 Johns as suitable candidates:
J7 son of Jonas (p1.2);
John 1752 son of Elias p1.1.
As John above was of Liley and Jonas J1 died in Liley the balance of probabilities suggests the one above is J7, so D21 is son of Elias

Ones that don't fit from Mirfield

Which is dau. J1?? Where are the others?
Hannah m 1783 John TORDOFF

Hannah m 1799 David BROADLEY
Hannah m. BROADLEY is probably dau. of John D21 and Mary Cliffe p1.4, as he appears as witness to other marriages in that tree - still no trace of her baptism

Elizabeth m 1828 Thomas PHILLIPS
Hannah m 1830 William HALL

This Daniel is the only reasonable candidate for the Daniel of Flockton and Hopton
